INTeresting – 10 Apr 2019

A quiet week, with our CATI at Colinton Dell providing the week's main O-based entertainment, complete with no fewer than 5 fire engines – pity none of the fire crews took part in the event! Two big weekends of orienteering coming up with the Scottish Spring this coming weekend, and the JK the one after. Entries for the Scottish Champs are now open too … and Sprintelopes will start on 24th April (Dunbar).

Recent News

- Thanks to the Bartletts for planning and organising, and everyone else who helped at the Colinton Dell CATI. Shame about the weather, but some newcomers who enjoyed it nonetheless, and the courses made the most of the area.
- Your Editor managed to run less slowly than everyone else for once, winning the light green, with son Angus not too far behind in 3rd. Sam Bartlett won Orange, with sister Leah in 3rd. Matthew Hartman was highest Interloper on the Yellow, in 4th place.
