INTeresting – 29 Apr 2019

JK results are provisionally out, and there's plenty of other news, especially for Juniors. Read on … (and if something's been missed out that should be mentioned, then please let me know).

News and Results

- Congratulations to all those who 'podium'ed(?) at the JK! Full results at https://raceprogress.com/raceprogress/event/jk/ - note you can filter each day's results by club.
- JK Sprint: Murray Strain M21E 3rd, Pippa Carcas W16A 2nd, Mairi Eades W18E 2nd
- JK Middle: Lorna Eades 3rd, W50L, Pippa Carcas W16A 2nd, Lucy Ward W10A 3rd
- JK Long: Freddie M20E 3rd, Lorna W50L 3rd, Callum McIntyre M20S 3rd
- JK Senior Ladies' relay team (Claire Ward, Jane Ackland and Lorna Eades) were 2nd.
- And some people didn't have much of a break before jetting off to take part in the Tio Mila in Sweden (ladies team running as Interlopers, and Mairi Eades running for her Scandinavian club)
- Good luck to everyone going to the British Champs in Yorkshire next weekend.

Juniors' News

- Congratulations to Pippa Carcas on her selection for the BOF Summer Talent Camp at Badaguish in July, and also to Freddie Carcas on selection for the Junior World Orienteering Championships in Denmark in early July
- Five Interloper M16s (Angus Ivory, Amius Marshall De'Ath, Tomas Macdonald, Tommy Thin and Eunus Rehman) are off in Estonia this week representing their school (George Heriot's) at the World Schools Orienteering Championships. See the SOA article and link to Facebook.
- For the next in ESOA's series of TD3+ juniors' training, several Interlopers and various others made it to Tay's training event at Kinnoull Hill (Perth) on Saturday 27th for a tricky line course (follow that contour!) followed by a green course to put it into practice.
- The Jamie Stevenson Trophy (Scottish Junior inter-club competition) will be hosted by BASOC in Gynack, near Kingussie on Sunday 9th June
- The annual Junior Inter-Areas competition (East (that's us) versus West and North) will be in Deeside on the weekend of 9th – 10th November. GRAMP will host the relay on Saturday, then the individual will share courses with MAROC's Cambus O'May event on the Sunday. Accommodation will be at Aberdeen YH on Saturday night.
- Don't forget to get your school to register for the Scottish Schools Orienteering festival on Fri 7th June at Hopetoun House. See https://www.ssoa.org.uk/2019.html
