

INteresting – 12 Oct 2021

Hi,

Plenty of results, from JHIs and British Champs to more local events, entries open for our Livingston SOUL, and only 5 sleeps until the Compass Sport Trophy Final on Sunday ...

News

- Robin Galloway recently completed an epic 260km bike ride from Edinburgh to Inverness in memory of his father, and in aid of Chest Heart & Stroke Scotland (CHSS). If you would like to donate, please go to https://www.sponsorme.co.uk/robingalloway-\(1\)/ve21-charity-cycle-edinburgh-to-inverness-in-1-day-260km.aspx/ve21-charity-cycle-edinburgh-to-inverness-in-1-day-260km.aspx)
- Entries are open for our SOUL urban race in Livingston next month – see <https://interlopers.org.uk/livingston-20211106>
- The long-awaited 2020 CSC Trophy Final takes place this weekend near Sheffield. Around 16 club members will be travelling to the event, some taking in the Carlisle Urban race on Saturday morning as well. Let's hope we can claim the trophy back again – good luck to everyone!
- FWTN is underway, with the first event at Calton Hill last week, and the next on Blackford hill next week. Details in the Events section below.
- JIRCs and JHIs – well done to our club juniors Laurence, Pippa and Fiona who contributed to the ScotJOS squad's win in the JIRCs (Junior Inter-Regional Champs), and to these three along with Angus Ivory who were just pipped to the post by the England team at the JHIs (Junior Home Internationals) in Surrey last weekend.
